"The perishable agricultural commodities listed on this invoice are sold subject to the statutory trust authorized by Section 5(c) of the Perishable Agricultural Commodities Act, 1930 (7 U.S.C. 499e (c)). The seller of these commodities retains a trust claim over all of these commodities, all inventories of food or other products derived from these commodities, and any receivables or proceeds from the sale of these commodities and any and all other proceeds or products derived from the sale of perishable agricultural commodities until full payment is received. Payment must be received no later than 10 days after receipt of merchandise unless other arrangements have been made in writing with J.C. Produce Inc. A finance charge of 1 1/2% per month (18% annually), or the highest rate permitted by law, will be charged on past due accounts for both pre-judgment and post-judgment debt. Buyer agrees to pay all collection costs, including collection agency fees, reasonable attorney fees, and court costs if this account is placed for collection. All sales are FOB, no grade contract. No deduction will be allowed without prior written authorization from seller. All claims must be reported by written notice received by seller within 24 hours of arrival and supported by acceptable USDA inspection certificates. The warranty of suitable shipping condition, due to condition defects, shall be deemed waived if, on FOB shipments, which were signed for by the driver, the receiver does not recover the temperature recorder(s) included with the load. The produce described on this invoice is for domestic shipments only. The warranties of suitable shipping condition and merchantability, and/or any other warranty, either express or implied, shall be deemed waived for sales outside the Continental United States of America.
